

HYMN NOTES:

Spirit Divine, Attend Our Prayers (407)

In 1829 the Board of Congregational Ministers in London urged the appointment of a special day (Good Friday) of humiliation and prayer to promote a revival of religion in British churches. This hymn by Andrew Reed (1787-1862) was written for that occasion. The text was radically revised by Samuel Longfellow for American use in Hymns of the Spirit (1864). Although stanza one suggests the theme of dedicating a new church, the rest of the hymn is a prayer for renewal by the Holy Spirit, to come as light, fire, and a dove to awaken the Church to new life.

Born in Butcher Row, London, Andrew Reed was educated at Hackney College and entered the family's watchmaking business. He was ordained a minister in the Congregational Church of England and the church he served grew and required a new building which they named Wycliffe Chapel. When urged by his son to write his autobiography Reed stated, "I was born yesterday, I shall die tomorrow, and I must not spend today telling what I have done, but in doing what I may for Him who has done all for me." Reed wrote twenty-one hymns.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS Chris Curvin, Pastor

HYMN #2 “Come, Thou Almighty King” ITALIAN HYMN
(stanzas 1,2,3)

Come, thou almighty King, help us thy name to sing;
Help us to praise: Father, all glorious, o’er all victorious,
Come and reign over us, Ancient of Days.

Come, thou incarnate Word, merciful, mighty Lord, our prayer attend.
Come, and thy people bless, and give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness, on us descend.

Come, holy Comforter, thy sacred witness bear in this glad hour.
Thou who almighty art, now rule in every heart,
And ne’er from us depart, Spirit of power.

CALL TO CONFESSION Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)

Almighty God, you have shown us such love, and stretched out your arms to draw us into your embrace. Yet we so often fail to show that love within our lives. Forgive our short-sightedness and misplaced loyalties when we honor you with our lips but our hearts are far from you. Be merciful, dear Lord, when we have little regard and little love for our neighbors. By your grace, quicken our hearts with your love and give us eyes to see and hands to reach out to those you bring into our lives. We ask all of this in the name of Jesus Christ, the One who knows us the best and loves us the most. Amen.
