HYMN NOTES:
“Called as Partners in Christ’s Service (761)
This text was written for the Women’s Breakfast at the General Assemblies of the United Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and the Presbyterian Church U.S. held concurrently in Houston TX in May 1981, two years before the denominations reunited.

When the author wrote these words, she was thinking primarily of the partnership of men and women in the church. She was mindful of the recent (1980) 50th anniversary of the ordination of women as elders and the 25th anniversary of women ordained to the ministry of the Word and Sacrament. Because the language of the text is not limited to gender issues, however, it speaks to many kinds of painful, needless, and inappropriate divisions within the household of faith. It challenges those who sing and hear it to work for reconciliation and wholeness.

THE PASCHAL CANDLE
Today on the chancel is a large candle that symbolizes both the pillar of fire that led Israel by night, and the risen Lord who stands among us at Easter. This large candle sits tall and it bears a light and witness to the risen Christ. The candle is called the paschal candle. “Pasch” comes from the Hebrew word “pesah,” meaning deliverance or Passover—thus connecting the Resurrection to the Exodus. As we did last year, the candle is first used on Easter and continues at each service through the Great Fifty Days—Easter through Pentecost. It is also appropriate to light it at initiation rites such as baptism, confirmation and ordinations as well as at funerals.

Thank you for the feet of those who lead us into peace,
Leaving in the sands of time a path for all to see.
Thank you for the arms of those who reach into the night.
Arms that carry those who fall and lift the cross of Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER

Thank you, God, for those who serve, for the ones who share your love, Lord, The ones who give their lives away and lift our eyes above.

Thank you for the arms of those who reach into the night.
Arms that carry those who fall and lift the cross of Christ.

Thank you for the feet of those who lead us into peace,
Leaving in the sands of time a path for all to see.

Thank you for the arms of those who reach into the night.
Arms that carry those who fall and lift the cross of Christ.

Thank you for the ones who serve the body of Christ.

Thank you for the lips that speak the words,
Tender hands that hold the sick and catch the falling tear.

Lord, thank you for the hands, the hands that calm our fear;
Make us partners in our living, our compassion to increase,
That surround each person’s sorrow with a calm that conquers strife.

So God grant us for tomorrow ways to order human life
That surround each person’s sorrow with a calm that conquers strife.

God of glory and righteousness, we confess that we do not live as citizens of your kingdom. We give allegiance to worldly thrones. We ignore the neediest in our midst. We discount our own worth. We ignore the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

God of glory and righteousness, we confess that we do not live as citizens of your kingdom. We give allegiance to worldly thrones. We ignore the neediest in our midst. We discount our own worth. We ignore the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
