Organized February 19, 1978*

MUSIC NOTES:

Last week we sang a beautifully written anthem by Mark Miller about which choir member Pat Callan had written some material. Because of the power issues some of you may have missed hearing or seeing what was done so we wanted to print it here this week. The anthem text was presumably found on a cellar wall where Jewish children and adults had hidden from the Nazis during World War II.

It was dark in that cold cellar where we were hiding, thirsty and hungry. I held my brother's prayer book when I felt sad. On good days we had potato scraps. Then the little ones stopped crying. It wasn't so bad. My friends were there: Aaron, the sausage maker's son, his little sister Hannah and artist boy from my school. I used his paint to write on the wall to say how I feel. I believed in Love. Now, I'm a blue star in the sky and I can hear some people singing my words. (I believe in the sun, even when it's not shining...)

Notes: In Cologne, Germany, children were hidden until the Nazis deported them to a concentration camp. Jewish prayers are organized in a prayer book, the siddur. The blue star refers to the Star of David.

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of God by

Suzanne Schulhof
In Memory of Allen McMullen

Flower orders & donation costs for flowers ordered for worship are made using the "2017 Flower Reservation Chart" on the bulletin board across from the kitchen. Thank you to those providing flowers each week In Honor/ In Memory of someone or an anniversary/birthday!

Come see how God used ordinary, flawed people like us for his work in this world. We meet in Room 6 for one hour. This is a discussion class where everyone has a voice. The book we are using is "Characters of the Old Testament" by Peter Scazzero. Any questions? Please call Cindy Huffman at 727-733-8726.

People: For those with grateful hearts, who have shared their faith with us and responded in kindness and service, we give you thanks and praise.

Leader: God of Love, we offer our gratitude to you for those women and men who have comforted us and have prayed for us.

WE CONFESS

CALL TO CONFESSION JoAnne Spigarelli (8:15)
Dawn Winder (11:00)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (together)

O God, we confess that we have not always spoken up for justice. We have not stood with the oppressed. We have walked the other way, sometimes immobilized by fear and sometimes not knowing what else to do. Rekindle the gift of God within us and remind us of our faith, a faith that first lived in our grandmothers and our mothers, in our Sunday School teachers and our choir directors, in our elders and our ministers. God of Grace, forgive us and transform us into whom you would have us to be, so that we delight in your will and walk in your way. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: God acts with justice and mercy. In everlasting love, God redeems us and sets us free.

People: With grateful hearts to God we proclaim that Jesus is Lord.
To the one and only God, Father and Holy Spirit, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #581

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.

ANTHEM

“Lord of the Small”

Dan Forrest

*Praise to the Lord of the small broken things,
Who sees the poor sparrow that cannot take wing.
Who loves the lame child, and the wretch in the street,
Who comforts their sorrows and washes their feet.*

*Praise to the Lord of the faint and afraid,
Who girds them with courage and lends them His aid.*

*He pours out His spirit on vessels so weak
That the timid can serve and the silent can speak.*

*Praise to the Lord of the frail and the ill,
Who heals their afflictions, or carries them till
They leave this tired frame and to paradise fly,
To never be sick, and never to die.*

*Praise Him, O praise Him, all ye who yet live,
Who’ve been given so much and can so little give,
Our frail, lisping praise God will never despise:
He sees His dear children through mercy filled eyes.*
