

HYMN NOTES:

“I, the Lord of Sea and Sky” (Here I Am, Lord) #69

This song of commitment and sending forth comes from the Roman Catholic tradition--recently since it was written in 1981 by Daniel L. Schutte. It contrasts the characterizations of God as Lord of sea, sky, snow, rain, wind, and flame with themes of the caring God who is intimately involved in the struggles of the poor and oppressed and is concerned for the well-being of each member of the human family. Based on Isaiah 6:8, “then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I; send me!’”

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of God by

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (together)

Gracious God, whose mercy is higher than the heavens and wider than our wanderings and deeper than all sin: hear our confession to you. Forgive us when we choose the easy wrong rather than the hard right. We confess that we would sometimes rather enjoy our sins than bare them before you. Forgive our folly and excess, our coldness to human sorrows, our passion for the things of the moment that perish in the grasping, and our indifference to those treasures of the spirit which are life and peace. Lord create in us a clean heart, a heart to love and serve you, to the glory of your name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

LANCASHIRE

Let love of neighbor send us to go the extra mile,
to pray for those who hate us, who slander and revile.
May we your justice render in true equality,
While turning from all vengeance to generosity.

ANTHEM

"I Believe"

Mark Miller

Kathryn Birch, Monologue
Heather Wood, Soprano

In 1944 the Nazis engaged in the mass deportation of families in the city of Cologne, Germany. Children were hidden (some in cellars) before ultimately being found and were shipped to camps: holding places that were used as propaganda to conceal their final purpose. Visitors to those camps saw children's art work, poems they wrote and music being played. In one of the Cologne cellars, the positive text of today's anthem was found on a wall, possibly written by a child who was hiding.
--by Patricia Callan

*I believe in the sun, even when it's not shining.
I believe in love, even when I don't feel it.
I believe in God, even when God is silent.*
