

HYMN NOTES:

“You Walk along Our Shoreline” (170)

This hymn is based on today’s scripture, Matthew 4:18-22. Part of the artistry of this text is the way the identity of the person addressed is gradually revealed. In stanza 1, all references are a nameless “you/your,” like someone seen through a shoreline mist. Stanza 2 introduces “Christ,” and stanza 3 adds “Jesus” and “Lord.” This series of names indicates both identity and relationship.

This text also reminds us that the disciples fished with nets requiring more than one person to be involved in the effort. The vocation and ministry to which we are called by our baptism is not a solitary or private endeavor. The work of love and justice takes place in community.

The author, Sylvia G. Dunstan (1955-1993) was a Canadian minister of the United Church of Canada. Her work included a prison ministry—her compassionate nature is reflected in her hymn writing. Eight of her texts appear in our Glory to God hymnal. She died in 1993, four months after being diagnosed with liver cancer.

Rescue us from fears that immobilize and distort. Turn us from quarrels that hurt and destroy. Refrain: *Arise, shine; for your light has come,
And the glory of the Lord has dawned upon you.*

The Lord will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

*For behold, darkness covers the land, deep gloom enshrouds the peoples;
But over you the Lord will arise, and his glory will appear upon you. (Refrain)*

*Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawning.
Your gates will always be open; by day or night they never will be shut. (Refrain)*

*They will call you the City of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
Violence will no more be heard in your land, or destruction within your borders.*

The sun will no more be your light by day,
By night you will not need the brightness of the moon. (Refrain)*
