

Hymn Notes:

“How Firm a Foundation” (463)

The author of this popular text is identified only as “K” and is one of the unsolved mysteries of 18th century English hymnody. It was first published in John Rippon’s A Selection of Hymns, 1787 and since Richard Keen was the precentor (song leader) in Dr. Rippon’s Baptist church, it is reasonable to assume that he was the author. It is basically about the promises of God, and hymnals use quotation marks for all the stanzas in which various promises are quoted. The tune which we sing was one of the most popular of the shape-note repertory and was associated with this text. However, all the official Presbyterian hymnals until 1955 set this text to ADESTE FIDELIS (O Come, All Ye Faithful) because of a cultural bias against shape-note tunes.

O God, in Your Love

O God, in your love, you have made us unique:
In gifts and traditions, in service we seek,
In race and in culture and family design, diverse are the branches in Jesus the Vine.

Lord Jesus, you came to bring God's love on earth;
You welcomed the outcasts and showed us our worth.
You reached out to people whom others despised,
You said all are precious in God's loving eyes.

O Christ, with your welcome your church feels unease:
We stand at closed doors tightly holding the keys.
Yet this is your body, the church that you love,
O Lord, do you weep for your church from above?

So may your church welcome in loving accord;
All people who want to serve Jesus our Lord.
O Spirit, unite us in Jesus the Son
In mission and ministry, God, make us one.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, we are people formed by your word in Christ, but we have wondered away from your truth, we have broken your commandments, we have distorted your teachings to serve our own ends, we have failed to trust your promises. Ground us again, O Holy One, in the written wisdom of scripture and in the living Word which is Christ Jesus, so that we may find joy in obedience and freedom in giving ourselves to you. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

ANTHEM "I Will Praise You with Song" Joseph M. Martin
Lord, I will praise you with song. How can I keep from singing?

*I give you my worship, I lift up my life. Your word shall be my delight.
Lord, I will serve you with music; you are my reason for singing.
The dawn breaks with singing, the noon sounds thanksgiving;
You are my song in the night.
Lord, you are holy. Lord, you are worthy.
Lord, you are solely the source of my song.
I will sing your story! I will sing your glory!
With all my heart I will praise you forever.*

*I will sing the wondrous story of the Christ who died for me;
How he left his home in glory for the cross of Calvary.
Yes, I'll sing the wondrous story of the Christ who died for me.
Sing it with the saints in glory, sing for all eternity.
Lord, I will praise you with song. How can I keep from singing?*
