

HYMN NOTES:

“Come, Ye Thankful People, Come” (367)

This is one of those hymns that have been appropriated for a season not intended by its author. Just as we’ve discovered that “Joy to the World” is not about Christmas but is a paraphrase of Psalm 98, the title of this hymn suggests Thanksgiving--but this harvest time is really about the final judgment when the good grain will be garnered and the tares thrown into the fire as described in Matthew 13-36-43. In today’s scripture, Jesus invites the disciples to pray for laborers to bring in the bountiful harvest, pointing out that there are not enough reapers for the harvest. The hymn was written in 1844 by Henry Alford--a well-respected and distinguished clergyman who became Dean of Canterbury Cathedral at the age of 47 where he remained until his death. The hymn originally contained seven stanzas, but only four have remained in common usage.

WE CONFESS

CALL TO CONFESSION

Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (together)

Dear Heavenly Father, we confess that we have too often forgotten that we are yours, commissioned to go out in the world to spread your good news. We have strayed from your ways like sheep without a shepherd. We fall short of being a credible witness to You in this fast changing world in which we live. For these things we ask your forgiveness and pray for discernment for the future. Give us clear minds and open hearts; open to new possibilities of life for ourselves, for your church, and for the world you came to save. In Jesus name. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #581

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

ANTHEM

“Jesus Is Mine”

Linda Cable Shute

*When Jesus called you "Father" in teaching folks to pray, and when he said we're children who need to trust your way.
O God, he knew your closeness, your guidance from above.
Perhaps in Joseph's caring, he'd learned to trust your love.*

*Some cannot call you Father; they will not use that name.
The fathers they have known here have caused them fear and pain;
and though you're like a father, you're like a mother, too.
No single name can ever tell all we know of you.*

*Yet Jesus in his teaching described a father's joy
When, at his son's returning, he ran to greet the boy.
O God, when we have hurt you and struggled on our own,
Just like that loving parent, you run to bring us home.*

*O God, you seek to save us, no matter what the cost;
Our Father, your intention is no one will be lost.
As Jesus called you "Abba," and trusted in your plans,
We trust in you to guide us! Our lives are in your hands..*

OUR MINISTRY WITH THE CHILDREN

(Children's Church is taking a break through August. Children over 3 should remain with their parents in worship. Nursery is available all services for children 3 and under.)

WE UNITE IN PRAYER

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
