

MUSIC NOTES:

All the organ music today is by the great American Lutheran cantor Dr. Paul Manz (1919-2003). An educator and church musician, a Fulbright grant enabled him to study with world renowned organists Flor Peeters in Belgium and Helmut Walcha in Germany. The Belgian government invited him to be the official United States representative in ceremonies honoring Flor Peeters on his 80th birthday and his 60th year as titular organist of the Cathedral of Saint Rombout in Mechelen, Belgium. At that time, Flor Peeters referred to his former student as 'my spiritual son.'

As a performer, Manz was most famous for his celebrated hymn festivals. Instead of playing traditional organ recitals, Manz would generally lead a "festival" of hymns from the organ, in which he introduced each hymn with one of his famously creative organ improvisations based on the hymn tune in question. The congregation would then sing the hymn with his accompaniment. Sometimes he would play an improvisation between each sung stanza, as with his well-known variations on the tune, ST ANNE sung to the Isaac Watts text "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" with which he would traditionally end each festival. Many volumes of these improvisations have been written out and published and are played by church organists throughout the world. You hear three of them today.

"This Is My Song"

*This is my song, O God of all the nations,
 A song of peace for lands afar and mine;
 This is my home, the country where my heart is,
 Here are my hopes, my dreams, my shrine;
 But other hearts in other lands are beating
 With hopes and dreams as true as mine.*

*My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
 And sunlight beams on clover leaf and pine.
 But other lands have sunlight, too, and clover,
 Where skies are ever blue as mine.
 O hear my song, great God of all the nations,
 A song of peace for their land and mine.*

*This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's kingdoms:
 Thy kingdom come; on earth thy will be done.
 Let Christ be lifted up till all shall serve him,
 And hearts united learn to live as one.
 O hear my prayer, great God of all the nations:
 Thy kingdom come; on earth thy will be done.*

“For This Land in All Its Wonder”

CWM RHONDDA

For this land in all its wonder, for each city, farm and town,

For each mountain filled with splendor,

for each place where love is found,

For the freedoms we enjoy here,

God, may thanks to you abound! God, may thanks to you abound!

For your peace and love unending, breaking barriers that divide;

For the joy of cultures blending as we live here side by side;

God, we thank you and we pray now:

May we all be unified! May we all be unified!

For your hand to lead and guide us, for your work in history,

For your vision born inside us of a just society,

God, we thank you and we pray now:

May this vision come to be! May this vision come to be!

May we be a nation seeking ways that are both wise and fair,

May our living and our speaking serve your purpose everywhere.

May we follow where you lead us;

God, this is our hope and prayer! God, this is our hope and prayer!

WE CONFESS

CALL TO CONFESSION

Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (together)

God of every nation, as we remember those that gave their lives for our sake, let us be stirred to action in their memory. We confess that we have not done all that is possible to promote peace and justice in our world. We have not loved our neighbors, let alone our enemies. Forgive us for failing to live up to your commandments. Empower us to work for your Kingdom in this world, and welcome us by your grace into your Kingdom in the next. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
