A Night On The Towne

Is Coming Back!!!

Saturday, October 18th 7:00PM - 9:30PM

Yes it's true. The hugely popular "A Night On The Towne" is coming back to Northwood. It will be held Saturday, October 18th here at the church. For those of you who have never been to one of the previous A Night on The Towne events, it is basically Northwood's version of a talent show. It is best described as a cross between "Americas Got Talent" and "Americas Funniest Home Videos". There is NO COST or sign up to attend (sign up is necessary for those who wish to perform, see below). You just show up and have a knee slapping good time with fellow Northwoodians.

In the past we have been entertained by celebrity impersonators, dancing ministers, musicians, singers, really bad acting, and even someone playing a saw. Talk about variety! During intermission we will serve a delicious assortment of pastries and coffee. All in all it usually turns out to be one of the most fun things we do, and should only be missed if you are in quarantine.

For those "talented" (used loosely) members interested in performing, we will need 15, 5 minute acts. The acts can be serious or funny, and can be by an individual or a group. If you are a shower singer or closet comedian, or have an act that would be even remotely entertaining, we need you!

YES I/WE WANT TO PERFORM

Please give or email the following information to Jim Warren
