“Festival of Faith”

A Cantata by Joseph M. Martin

“We are a people of the Song.

From generation to generation, worshippers have shared their spiritual journeys through the sacred arts. Our tuneful testimonies are passionate witnesses to the miracles God has worked among His people. Hymns, psalms and spiritual songs provide the church with a special language of the heart as we share and remember our heritage of faith.

With music we comfort each other during difficult times, singing promises of hope and peace. The great hymns and treasured psalms enrich and encourage us by pressing God’s timeless truths deep into our yearning hearts and minds. When we sing, we breathe together and, in that unity, we celebrate our calling as a people of praise. It is in these precious, holy moments that our grateful voices of worship rise like incense to the Giver of grace. In the hushed spaces between the words and notes, we listen and learn.

So now as we gather to hear these timeless truths, once again we experience the mystery and majesty of Christ’s redemptive love. May each song remind us to celebrate life and inspire our living to become a joyful festival of faith.”

At the conclusion of this presentation, following the spoken word and final handbell strike, as the lights are dimmed, please leave in silence.

Hymn # 196

“All Glory, Laud and Honor”

Refrain:

All glory, laud and honor to thee, Redeemer, King.
To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring!

Thou art the King of Israel, thou David’s royal Son, who in the Lord’s name comest, the King and blessed
One. Refrain

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
our praise and prayers and anthems before thee we present. Refrain

To thee, before thy passion, they sang their hymns of praise; to thee, now high exalted, our melody we raise.
Refrain

Thou didst accept their praises; accept the prayers we bring, who in all good delightest, thou good and gracious
King! Refrain
