

Hymn Notes:

By including their works in our services today, we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of four composers and/or hymnwriters—all born in the year 1919. Vaclav Nelhybel arranged the piece for organ and brass. He was a Czech composer who spent much of his career teaching and composing at colleges in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. Paul Manz was an exemplar Lutheran church organist and choir director known for his “Hymn Festivals” that included many improvised organ works of which many, such as the piece at the offering today, have been published. Jaroslav Vajda was a Lutheran pastor who wrote his first hymn at age 49. He was of Slovak descent and born in Ohio. His many hymns are included in dozens of hymnals. The most famous hymn is probably “Now the Silence,” #534 in Glory to God. A number of his hymns are written without punctuation including our middle hymn today, “God of the Sparrow” #22. Austin Lovelace was one of the most important and influential figures in American church music in the 20th century. An organist and choral composer, he served churches, taught in seminaries and colleges, edited hymnals, wrote textbooks and published more than 700 compositions including today’s Closing Voluntary.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)

God of every nation, as we remember those that gave their lives for our sake, let us be stirred to action in their memory. We confess that we have not done all that is possible to promote peace and justice in our world. We have not loved our neighbors, let alone our enemies. Forgive us for failing to live up to your commandments. Empower us to work for your Kingdom in this world, and welcome us by your grace into your Kingdom in the next. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

ANTHEM "God of Our Fathers"

arr. Hal H. Hopson

*God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
 Leads forth in beauty all the starry band.
 Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
 Our grateful songs before thy throne arise.*

*Thy love divine hath lead us in the past;
 In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
 Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide and Stay;
 Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.*

*From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence.
 Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
 Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
 Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.*

*Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
 Lead us from night to never-ending day;
 Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
 And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine. Amen.*
