HYMN NOTES:
“For All the Saints” (326)
The text was written by William W. How for All Saints’ Day, 1864. It is a commentary on the phrase “I believe in the communion of saints” from the Apostles’ Creed. The original hymn contained eleven stanzas, but most collections include six or fewer (Glory to God has five). The tune was composed by the great English composer Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) as the setting of this text in The English Hymnal, 1906. The name of the tune, SINE NOMINE, means literally, “without a name.” The tune was at first rejected as being “jazz music,” while the canon at Westminster, Percy Dearmer, stated that this tune is “one of the finest hymn tunes of the present century.” Today most authorities agree with Dearmer. This marching tune makes a grand ’bookend’ for “When the Saints Go Marching In.”

WE COME TO WORSHIP

CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive)
Leader: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses,
People: let us also lay aside every weight, and the sin that clings so closely.
Leader: As partners in Christ, let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.
People: looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.
Leader: Let us worship God!

OPENING VOLUNTARY

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

HYMN #326 “For All the Saints” (stanzas 1,2)

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)
Merciful God, forgive us when we invest all our energies into increasing our personal prosperity rather than enriching people’s lives with the good news of Jesus Christ. Forgive us when we fail to be adventurous in spreading the gospel around. Increase our capacity to proclaim the good news even if this means taking risks. This we pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

“Therefore, my brothers and sisters,
you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown,
stand firm in the Lord in this way, dear friends!”
Philipians 4:1
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again to life; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

O Apostles' Creed (Together)

We praise you, God Our Creator.
For the gift of Creation, we give you praise and honor.

We praise you, God Our Savior.
For the gift of Jesus, we give you praise and glory.

We praise you, God Our Sustainer.
For the gift of Life, we give you praise and thanks.

O Blest Communion, fellowship divine!
We praise you, God of our mothers and fathers, of our sisters and brothers in faith. Give us faith and true hope that we may, without fear, trust those who are dear to us to your never-failing love. For the glory of Christ and your name we pray, Amen.

WE GO OUT TO SERVE

HYMN #761 "Called as Partners in Christ's Service"
BEECHER

Called as partners in Christ’s service, called to ministries of grace, we respond with deep commitment fresh new lines of faith to trace. May we learn the art of sharing, side by side and friend with friend, equal partners in our caring to fulfill God’s chosen end.

Christ’s example, Christ’s inspiring, Christ’s clear call to work and worth, let us follow, never faltering, reconciling folk on earth.

Men and women, richer, poorer, all God’s people, young and old, blending human skills together gracious gifts from God unfold. Thus new patterns for Christ’s mission, in a small or global sense, help us bear each other burdens, breaking down each wall or fence. Words of comfort, words of vision, words of challenge, said with care.

Bring new power and strength for action, make us colleagues, free and fair.

So God grant us for tomorrow ways to order human life that surround each person’s sorrow with a calm that conquers strife. Make us partners in our living, our compassion to increase, messengers of faith, thus giving hope and confidence and peace.
