WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP  “Star Child” Carlton R. Young
Stephanie Carson, Soloist

“Star-Child, earth-Child, go-between of God,
Love Child, Christ Child, heaven’s lightning rod,

This year, this year let the day arrive
When Christmas comes for everyone, everyone alive!

Hope-for-peace Child, God’s stupendous sign,
Down-to-earth Child, Star of stars that shine,

Text: Shirley Elena Murray (Matt. 2:1-12)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

CAROL #147  “The First Nowell” THE FIRST NOWELL
(stanzas 1,2,5)

“The first Nowell the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay,
in fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
on a cold winter’s night that was so deep.

Refrain: Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star shining in the east beyond them far;
and to the earth it gave great light,
and so it continued both day and night.
Refrain

Then entered in those wise men three,
full reverently upon their knee,
and offered there in his presence
their gold and myrrh, and frankincense.
Refrain
CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)

God of love, as we reflect back on this past year and look to live out our faith in the year up-coming, we confess our weaknesses, our broken promises, and our lack of faith in your goodness and grace. O Dear Lord, for our sins of commission and omission, may you show us mercy, grant us forgiveness and by your grace empower us to live faithful lives that make a difference for Jesus’ sake for it is in his name that we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

Sages, leave your contemplations; brighter visions beam afar; seek the great desire of nations; you have seen his natal star: come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ the newborn king!

PRAISE SONG

Voices in Praise & Horns in Praise
(Recorded December 16, 2018)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO OFFERING

QUARTET

“God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen”
Heather Wood, Lindsey Peterson, Robert Wood, David Hamilton
(Recorded December 24, 2019)

God rest ye merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay, for Jesus Christ our Savior was born upon this day, to save us all from Satan’s power when we were gone astray. O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy, O tiding of comfort and joy.

From God our heavenly Father a blessed angel came, and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same, how that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name. O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy, O tiding of comfort and joy.

“Fear not” then said the angel “let nothing you a fright”, this day is born a savior of a pure virgin bright, to free all those who trust in him from satan’s pow’r and might O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy, O tiding of comfort and joy.
Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place,
and with true love and brotherhood each other now embrace;
this holy tide of Christmas all others doth deface.
O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy, O tiding of comfort and joy.

WE GO OUT TO SERVE

HYMN  #136
“Go Tell It on the Mountain”
GO TELL IT
(stanzas 1,3)
Refrain
Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born.

While shepherds kept their watching o’er silent flocks by night,
Behold, throughout the heavens there shown a holy light. Refrain

Down in the lowly manger the humble Christ was born,
And God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain

The First Nowell

1 The first Now-ell the an-gel did say was to cer-tain poor shep-herds in fields as they lay, in fields where they lay keep-ing their sheep, on a cold win-ter’s night that was so deep.

2 They look-ed up and saw a star shin-ing in the east be-yond them far; and to the earth it gave great light, and so it con-tin-ued both day and night.

3 And by the light of that same star three wise men came from coun-try far; to seek for a king was their in-tent, and to fol-low the star where-ev-er it went.

4 This star drew nigh to the north-west; o’er Beth-le-hem it took its rest, and there it did both stop and stay, right o-ver the place where Je-sus lay.

Refrain

Now-ell, Now-ell, Now-ell, Now-ell,

“Nowell” is the English form of the French “noel,” a shout of joy formerly used at Christmas (as in Chaucer’s “Franklin’s Tale”), a clue that the word is older than its first printing. It may have Latin and French roots related to “born” (natus / né) as well to “news” (noua / nouvelle).

5 Then entered in those wise men three, full reverently upon their knee, and offered there in his presence their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.

Refrain

6 Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord, that hath made heaven and earth of nought, and with his blood our life hath bought.

Refrain
Go, Tell It on the Mountain

Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born!

1. While shepherds kept their watching o’er silent flocks by night,
2. The shepherds feared and trembled when lo! above the earth
3. Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born, behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.

rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior’s birth.

Like other material from oral traditions, 19th-century African American spirituals flourished without being written down. Their refrains were their most stable parts, and narrative stanzas were often improvised to fit. These Nativity stanzas attempt to recall that tradition.
