CALL TO WORSHIP
Leader: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
People: Hosanna in the highest!
Leader: Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion.
People: Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Leader: Lo, your king comes to you;
People: triumphant and victorious is he,
Leader: humble and riding on a donkey,
People: on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

*HYMN #196
(Stanzas 1,2)
Refrain: All glory, laud and honor to thee, Redeemer, King,
to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring!

Though art the King of Israel, thou David’s royal Son,
Who in the Lord’s name comest, the King and blessed One. Refrain

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
Our praise and prayers and anthems before thee we present. Refrain

CALL TO CONFESSION
Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)
Eternal God: in Jesus Christ you entered Jerusalem to die for our sins. We confess we have not hailed you as king, or gone before you in the world with praise. For brief faith that fades in trouble, for enthusiasms that fizzle out, for hopes we parade but do not pursue, have mercy on us. Forgive us, God, and give us such trust in your power that, in every city, we may live for justice and tell of your loving kindness; for the sake of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.

Last night I lay a-sleeping, there came a dream so fair
I stood in old Jerusalem beside the temple there
I heard the children singing and ever as they sang
Me thought the voice of angels from heaven in answer rang.

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Lift up your gates and sing, Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna to your King!"

And then me-thought my dream was chang’d, the streets no longer rang
Hushed were the glad Hosannas the little children sang.
The sun grew dark with mystery, the morn was cold and chill
As the shadow of a cross arose upon a lonely hill.

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Hark! How the Angels sing, Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna to your King!"

And once again the scene was changed, new earth there seemed to be
I saw the Holy City beside the tideless sea.
The light of God was on its streets the gates were open wide
And all who would might enter and no one was denied
No need of moon or stars by night or sun to shine by day
It was the new Jerusalem that would not pass away.

"Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Sing for the night is o’er’ Hosanna in the highest Hosanna forevermore!"

—Fredric Weatherly

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

WE GO OUT TO SERVE

*HYMN #197
“Hosanna, Loud Hosanna” ELLACOMBE

Hosanna, loud hosanna, the little children sang;
Through pillared court and temple the joyful anthem rang.
To Jesus, who had blessed them, close folded to his breast,
The children sang their praises, the simplest and the best.
From Olivet they followed ‘mid an exultant crowd,
The victor palm branch waving, the chanting clear and loud;
the Lord of earth and heaven rode on in lowly state,
Nor scorned that little children should on his bidding wait.

“Hosanna in the highest!” That ancient song we sing,
for Christ is our Redeemer; the Lord of heaven, our King.
O may we ever praise him with heart and life and voice,
And in his blissful presence eternally rejoice.

All Glory, Laud, and Honor

Refrain

All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King,
to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring!

1 Thou art the King of Israel, thou David's royal Son,
2 The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
3 To thee, before thy passion, they sang their hymns of praise;
4 Thou didst accept their praises; accept the prayers we bring.

who in the Lord's name comest, the King and blessed One.
our praise and prayers and anthems before thee we present.
to thee, now high exalted, our melody we raise.
who in all good delightest, thou good and gracious King!

These stanzas for Palm Sunday have been selected and translated from a much longer Latin poem written by a bishop who was the leading theologian in Charlemagne's court. They are sung to a 17th-century German chorale, as adapted for these words in the mid-19th century.

MUSIC: Melchior Teschner, 1614; arr. William Henry Monk, 1861
Hosanna, Loud Hosanna

1 Hosanna, loud hosanna, the little children sang;
Through pilared court and temple the joyful anthem rang.

2 From Oli vet they followed 'mid an exultant crowd,
The victor palm branch waving, and chanting clear and loud;

3 "Hosanna in the highest!" That ancient song we sing,
For Christ is our Redeemer; the Lord of heaven, our King.

To Jesus, who had blessed them, close folded to his breast,
The Lord of earth and heaven rode on in lowly state,

O may we ever praise him with heart and life and voice,
O may we ever praise him with heart and life and voice,

The children sang their praises, the simplest and the best,
Nor scorned that little children should on his bidding wait.

And in his blissful presence eternally rejoice.

The opening two stanzas narrate the first Palm Sunday in the past tense, but the third stanza shifts to the present tense to emphasize what current singers do and believe. The repeated elements in this anonymous German tune suggest the repetitive patterns in a crowd's chant.
